

ATS Roles and Rules

MVP role definition for TalentNode Application Tracking System.

Core Idea

- Candidate: applies to jobs and tracks their own applications.
- Recruiter: manages jobs, applications, and hiring pipeline.
- Hiring Manager: reviews candidates and participates in hiring decisions.
- Interviewer: accesses assigned interviews and submits interview feedback.
- Admin: manages organization-wide users, jobs, permissions, and settings.

Candidate Rules

- Can sign up publicly.
- Can view public and open jobs.
- Can apply to jobs.
- Can view and update only their own profile.
- Can view only their own applications.
- Cannot create jobs.
- Cannot view other candidates.
- Cannot move application stages.
- Cannot manage team members or organization settings.

Recruiter Rules

- Can create, edit, publish, and archive jobs.
- Can view all jobs in their organization.
- Can view all applications in their organization.
- Can move applications through pipeline stages.
- Can add notes to candidates and applications.
- Can shortlist or reject candidates.
- Can schedule interviews.
- Can view candidate profiles tied to organization jobs.
- Cannot manage global platform settings.

Hiring Manager Rules

- Can view jobs they own or are assigned to.
- Can view applicants for assigned jobs.
- Can review candidate profiles and resumes.
- Can leave feedback and notes.
- Can move candidates between limited stages based on business rules.
- Can approve or reject hiring decisions if your process allows it.
- Cannot access unrelated jobs by default.
- Cannot manage organization users unless explicitly allowed.

Interviewer Rules

- Can view only interviews assigned to them.
- Can view limited candidate details for assigned interviews.
- Can submit interview feedback.
- Can submit recommendations such as strong_yes, yes, no, or strong_no.
- Cannot create or edit jobs.
- Cannot move the full application pipeline by default.
- Cannot view all candidate or organization data.

Admin Rules

- Has full access inside their organization.
- Can manage users and assign roles.
- Can create, edit, and archive all jobs.
- Can view all applications.
- Can manage pipeline settings.
- Can manage organization settings.
- Can view reports and dashboard data.
- Can invite, deactivate, and reset staff accounts.
- Should be the only role allowed to promote others to admin.

Permission Matrix

Permission	Allowed Roles
view_own_profile	candidate, recruiter, hiring_manager, interviewer, admin
update_own_profile	candidate, recruiter, hiring_manager, interviewer, admin
view_public_jobs	candidate, recruiter, hiring_manager, interviewer, admin
apply_to_job	candidate
view_own_applications	candidate
create_job	recruiter, admin
edit_job	recruiter, admin
archive_job	recruiter, admin
view_org_jobs	recruiter, hiring_manager, interviewer, admin
view_org_applications	recruiter, hiring_manager, admin
move_application_stage	recruiter, hiring_manager, admin
leave_candidate_notes	recruiter, hiring_manager, interviewer, admin
schedule_interview	recruiter, hiring_manager, admin
submit_interview_feedback	interviewer, hiring_manager, admin
manage_team_members	admin
assign_roles	admin
view_org_reports	recruiter, hiring_manager, admin

Permission

Allowed Roles

manage_organization_settings

admin

Data Access Rules

- Every staff role must be scoped to organizationId.
- Candidates must never access another candidate's data.
- Interviewers should only access assigned interviews and candidate records.
- Hiring managers should only access jobs they own or are assigned to.
- Recruiters and admins can access organization-wide jobs and applications.

MVP Middleware Recommendations

- authenticateUser
- authorizeRoles("admin")
- authorizeRoles("recruiter", "admin")
- authorizeRoles("hiring_manager", "recruiter", "admin")
- authorizeRoles("interviewer", "hiring_manager", "recruiter", "admin")